

Oracy Practice: A Workshop

Jez Sweetland and Christine De Cruz

SpeakersBank is a national network of professional trainers, speakers and facilitators. It is part of the Speakers Trust; a registered charity that promotes the development of speaking skills. Having trained over 75,000 people nationwide, we are one of the fastest-growing providers of public speaking and communication training in the UK.

Our Speak Up! Speak Out! programmes are delivered in partnership with educational institutions, the third sector and the public sector. We are committed to making high quality professional communication training accessible to all- a philosophy which is reflected in our rates and approach. SpeakersBank believes that good communication skills are key to personal confidence, encourage active involvement in community life, and improve employability.

Regarding the actual workshop we plan to use the session times as:
